Score

Hugo Saldana

Appearance: Dry color, veiny yet attractive

8.5

Construction: Well constructed but a little unraveling during the smoke with an even ash thru 2/3 of the cigar.

9.2

Draw & Burn: Good draw 1/3 god burn- good draw 2/3 starts uneven burn- good draw still uneven ash.
9.3

Flavor & Strength:The first 1/3 of the cigar was woody, earthy & dry.- 2/3 The dry taste deminishes and is still earthy. The finish was a mild citric acid and less dry but the strength held thru out the cigar.
8

Final Impression: Good cigar, dry through out the smoke. Construction appeared well made but the 2nd & last third of the cigar was dry and burned unevenly. The start was mild and turned medium, earthy and finished with a little citric acid.
8

Appearance: Tightly rolled, veiny & medium to dark rich oily appearance.
8.5

Construction: A tight hand roll for sure?
8.5

Draw & Burn: Easy to light, good draw & an even burn.
8.5

Flavor & Strength: A nutty, woody, earthy but very smooth and bold for a Cameroon. I did notice a hint of citric acid thru out.
8

Final Impression: It was a stronger cigar the longer you smoked it and was consistent through out with a great aroma and a fruity taste to finish.

Denise Taylor

Appearance: Very consistent wrap, no cracks & veiny.
7.3

Construction: Tight white ash.

8

Draw & Burn: Open, easy draw, wrapper stayed even & had no cracking.

8

Flavor & Strength: Flavor was woody, dry, to heavy dry citrus. This cigar is medium in strength.

7.2

Final Impression: Overall a decent cigar. Aftertaste builds and goes from a suggestion of sweet to dry citrus. Easy smoke, worth trying again.

Sgt. Monty Browning

Appearance: Looks nice with the exception of a couple of blemishes close to the cap.

8.1

Construction: Well constructed but started cracking early and then stopped after about 1/2" h.

7.4

Draw & Burn: Tight semi-hard draw with light smoke. No runs & an even burn.

7.4

Flavor & Strength: Mild to medium with earthy tones.

7.4

Final Impression: Not a bad cigar, just not a great cigar.
